of the "cherum' court holding a session in that city.

Lawrence countyalways manages to let somebody else run her affairs in politics.

The deadest lock in the history of politics is that in the 10 Congression district at Memphis.

Col. Cox bore himself with ca'm and quiet demeanor all through thefierce and even tiery or deal.

Hon. Jno. P. Buchanan will speak Oct. 8. Don't forget the date and let every democrat in the county come and hear him.

A German remarked to us the other day that "the Germans are in pretty good fix and don't neel any office to help them aloug".

It is your choice between Buchapan, a life long democrat and Lewis T. Baxter a republi can of the straitest section a force bill platform.

The American in reporting us at the Columbia convention said we "ought to have arisen to a question of personal privilege as his speech was mostly of himself." That was the unkindest cot of all. We could have borne the very patent unfairness of the report in ail other particalars but a reflection on our modesty gets away with us. We are exceedingly, painfully modest and have so firmly established this character that the American brings itself into disrepute There was a quiet little affair by making any statement to the rap of a contrary sort.
